The Five Year Capital Improvement Program (CIP) Fiscal Years 2010-2011 through 2011-2015 was reviewed and discussed with proposed changes.

Finance Director, Jeff Blume briefly reviewed the most up-to-date changes to the CIP.

Each line item was reviewed with the following changes:

Downtown TIF Fund

The Downtown TIF fund forecast increased to $650,000 to include Phase II of the Plaza @ 501.

Parks Facilities

Splash-Waterworks & Café Shade – the Café Shade to be included in the bid process as an optional item.

Public Works Department – Streets

Sidewalk Replacement – to increase the amount to $30,000 each year through 2016.

Non-Departmental

Firehouse No. 1 – discussion of possible Bond issue in 2010, will further discuss election date and ballot.

Court Docket System – due to the urgency of implementing a new docket system Council agreed to move the docket system to the current budget (2009-2010) and to use REJIS.

City Manager, John Shaw will check with the City Attorney to see if a Resolution or Ordinance needs to be prepared for the budget change.

Council also discussed adding KIOSK with 0 – amount as a new line item, decorating the Plaza @ 501 with a wreath and lights, and to have staff check into the cost of lighting the footbridge area between Forestwood and Lang-Royce parks.

There being no further business to consider, the work session meeting adjourned at 8:05 p.m.
