

Policies and Training:

To ensure that officers have the knowledge, skills, and direction necessary to police constitutionally, effectively, and in a manner that promotes both officer and public safety, the City agrees to continue to enhance its policies and increase the quality and scope of training provided to FPD officers and other FPD employees. The City agrees to develop systems for policy and training development and delivery that will generate policies and training that are current, responsive to identified needs, and effective.